In politice, the paper will be Republican, sustaining the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, but disclaiming, however, any pretension to be the organ of the President.

The is no other Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recentevents have opened to such a paper an important aphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentations which have made those principles so distasteful to the Routh.

But it is not only here, and in this vicinity, that the projectors of the National Republican tope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will discuss national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swerved from patriotic duty by any overpowering pressure of local interest.
